You could buy your advice from a so-called expert for thousands and thousands of dollars -- I HAVE. However, Gary smacked my face in July 2014 with a paradox: Here is this guy that runs a REAL business with something like 400+ employees in Manhattan, and HE STARTED TO GIVE HIS ADVICE AWAY. That month, I started watching his new show "The #AskGaryVee Show" and he was giving away everything: I mean EVERYTHING. His best advice. He was not trying to sell me into some seminar that led to private coaching that led to an island retreat with a yearly fee. No, this guy is simply preaching his religion: and I became a full on follower. You can tell who you are dealing with by their true work ethic and their way of interacting with the world. Gary is as true as they come. The results for me did not start with "Converted more clients," "got paid more," or "bought a new car." What Gary taught me is that is not the point: Gary's advice on the show (and his completely new take on his advice in this book) made me be a better husband and father; Gary made me be a harder worker; Gary made me stop doing stupid things that were actually harming me more than helping. ... AND YES, because of all of that great things started to happen (except for buying that new car, because Gary let me see how I did not need to waste that money). My kids see me more and I am a better dad. I'm a better human being to be around -- and my business is doing so amazing BECAUSE OF THAT. In this book, you get actual steps to take your work with those you serve to exciting new places: But that's all possible because Gary gives us the core pieces of himself that allow him to do these other tactics. Tactics are great -- and he gives lots of those -- but it's the heart and head stuff that made the difference. Gary, I know you will read this so I just want to say directly to you: Brother, you have changed my life. Not because of the tactics -- even though those helped SO FREAKIN MUCH. What changed my life is that you showed me how to have the self awareness to figure out who I really am and have the authenticity to DARE to communicate that real me to the world. Gary, thank you. Buy this book: be ready for it to change your life. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Glad I stuck this audio book out because I was ... By Warren Glad I stuck this audio book out because I was close to shutting it off. The first ten to fifteen minutes were all about Gary. I literally was on my way to turn it off cause I was so sick of him talking about himself when my kid asked me to help him outside. Twenty minutes later I came back into my office and the meat of the book was playing. A lot of really good stuff. I love his can do attitude and practical advice. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. I love Gary's intense and intimate style of providing practical and ... By Mell believe this book serves as an example that leaders are people too. How many leaders provide such a deep level of transparency and helpfulness? I love Gary's intense and intimate style of providing practical and honest feedback. This book is nicely structured and organized, so you can find what you're looking for very easily. It can almost serve as a Bible of Gary's QA. You can go to your section of choice or just open to a random page and go to work. You're sure to find helpful advice within a couple of pages. Thank you Gary for pouring your heart and expertise into this book and into your work in general. You lead the way not just for young up and coming entrepreneurs, but also for seasoned veterans. You teach us all how to speak our truth, from the heart and the importance of doing the work. I'm excited about adding the #AskGaryVee book to my bookshelf.

About the Author Gary Vaynerchuk has captured attention with his pioneering, multifaceted approach to personal branding and business. After primarily utilizing traditional advertising techniques to build his family's local retail wine business into a national industry leader, Gary rapidly leveraged social media tools such as Twitter and Facebook to promote Wine Library TV, his video blog about wine. Gary has always had an early-to-market approach, launching Wine Library's retail website in 1997 and Wine Library TV in February of 2006. His lessons on social media, passion, transparency, and reactionary business are not to be missed!
