Niels Noorderhaven, Carla Koen, Arndt Sorge : Comparative International Management before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Comparative International Management:

The use of comparisons to explain, analyze and understand social and economic phenomena is recognized as a valuable social science tool. This textbook deals with the differences in management and organization between nations and their effects on multinational enterprises. In comparing management practice across the world, the authors cover themes such as national cultures, diversity and globalization. Students are guided through the key business disciplines, providing a broad introduction to the field and including truly global coverage. With student and instructor friendly resources such as chapter summaries, mini-case scenarios, larger case studies and power-point slides, this book is core reading for students of international business and international management.

About the Author Carla Koen is a Lecturer in the Faculty of Economics, Organisation and Strategy at Tilburg University in the Netherlands.
