Bill Dunn : Global Political Economy: A Marxist Critique before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Global Political Economy: A Marxist Critique:

This is an ambitious survey of the history and state of the world economy, covering the major upheavals of the capitalist system over the last 100 years. Bill Dunn provides an original and enlightening explanation of the state of the world economy. He covers all the main aspects of global political economy explaining the theories behind production, trade, finance and relations between rich and poor countries. He also tackles the question of the origin of capitalism, a debate that always proves popular among students and academics. Dunn also includes a critique of alternative perspectives, showing that Marxism still provides the best analytical tools for understanding the global economy. This comprehensive text is a must for students of politics and economics who are keen to understand how the economy reached its current stage and what the future is likely to bring.

'This insightful text puts social power and the social organisation of production together again at the heart of IPE' -- Mark Rupert
'Bill Dunn uses an impressive array of theoretical, historical and empirical reasoning to offer a powerful analysis of contemporary capitalism' -- Ben Fine, Professor of Economics at the University of London's School of Oriental and African Studies
'This timely and accessible book presents us with an historically embedded account of what the new global political economy has wrought' -- Christopher May, Professor of Political Economy, Lancaster University
'A clear and comprehensive account of global capitalism today. An indispensable antidote to conventional textbooks, this book will be valued by students and activists alike' -- Hugo Radice, Senior Lecturer in International Political Economy, University of Leeds
About the Author Bill Dunn teaches International Studies in the department of Political Economy at the University of Sydney. He is author of Global Restructuring and the Power of Labour (Palgrave, 2004), and co-editor, with Hugo Radice, of 100 Years of Permanent Revolution (Pluto, 2006).
