Dallas Travers cuts to the chase and gets right to the point. In my three decades advising journeymen and stars I've read many books designed to assist actors. In The Tao of Show Business, Dallas succeeds in crystalizing the challenges and creating a strategy to conquer. This is truly a handbook for acting success. --Sam Christensen, Creator Image Design Process, Founder of Sam Christensen Studios When a wildly successful acting career can be built upon talent alone, there will be many more happy, successful actors out there. Meanwhile, scads of solid, trained actors are overwhelmed and paralyzed by the business of The Business every day. It's an epidemic! But fear not in The Tao of Show Business, Dallas Travers reveals the non-acting secrets that simply aren't part of the college drama class experience. Thank you, Dallas! Finally, I can save my breath and let The Tao do the talking. --Lesly Kahn, Lesly Kahn Company Actor Training, Hollywood, California Dallas Travers takes actors well beyond the nuts and bolts of the business and offers fresh, insightful, and practical tools unmatched in the industry. --Steven Pressfield-Author, The War of Art About the Author Dallas Travers is an IPEC certified Creative Career Coach, motivational speaker, and President of Sage Creative, Inc. Infusing practical knowledge with inspired ideas, she has helped hundreds of actors and artists generate remarkable personal and professional breakthroughs. She provides lectures, training, and private coaching for actors, writers, and creative entrepreneurs across the globe. In 2001, Dallas founded Sage Creative, Inc., an innovative consulting firm for actors, artists and other creative entrepreneurs. Since then, she has worked to counteract the many myths and stumbling blocks of the business by creating an environment where artists easily control of their own career paths. During her time at Sage, Dallas noticed that her clients shared the same questions about career mastery, confidence, and basic marketing and management skills. She began to conduct workshops to address these very issues. Dallas soon fell in love with teaching and has continued to motivate actors and artists throughout the country at various workshops and events. Today, Dallas is applauded as one of the leading career coaches in the entertainment industry. In the summer of 2008, Dallas released the acclaimed educational CD, Living Mantras: Mastering the Art of Positive Speaking. This CD introduces the simple yet transformative practice of consciously asking empowering questions in order produce new results in your career as well as your life. Dallas is also a contributing author to the award-winning anthology, Conscious Entrepreneurs, compiled by Christine Kloser.
